You've been morsbagged!

This morsbag is now yours!

It is handmade from recycled material, meaning it is completely unique. Over _____ morsbags are now being used worldwide (as of _____).

Can you sew? Go to www.morsbags.com to download the free pattern and make morsbags from old curtains, duvet covers, tablecloths etc.

This is a positive way to reduce the hideous number of plastic bags being used and to keep textile waste out of landfill - 1 million plastic bags are consumed per minute globally - of which hundreds of thousands end up in the oceans.

The idea is to get together with people in your local community, eat cake and make reusable morsbags and then give them away for free.

Please spread the word...

This bag was made by a pod called _____ based in _____.
